Helping you to live independently

Introduction

This is the third edition of the Kirklees Supporting People Directory of Services. The aim of this directory is to provide information on services for people who want to live independently but need some support.

What is Supporting People?

Supporting People is a government programme that pays for services that support people to live independently. This is known as housing related support.

What is housing related support?

Housing related support includes such things as:

- advice and guidance on how to manage in independent accommodation, including budgeting, meal planning and management of the property
- assisting to develop life/social skills
- support to people to help them resolve or prevent housing debts or other debts that reduce their ability to pay for their housing
- advising and enabling people in relation to the safety and security of their accommodation
- advice for people to enable them to move to more appropriate accommodation.

Who can get this support?

A wide range of people can get this support including:

- older people
- people with learning disabilities
- people with mental health problems
- refuge and move on support for women fleeing domestic violence
- people who have substance misuse problems
- support for young homeless people who may never have had a tenancy.

Where can I get this support?

This directory lists all the services where you can get housing related support. You can get support in different ways depending on what type of service you need. You will need to make what is known as a referral to any of the organisations listed in this directory. You can make a referral through a number of ways including:

Please note that we have made every effort to make sure that the information in this directory is accurate at the time of publication.

How to use this directory

This directory has been put together so that you will find it easy to use. Each section tells you how many services there are in Kirklees and how many there are in the area you want to live. There are 15 client group sections and each section is alphabetically arranged according to the reason why you might need support, for example if you have a mental health problem or you are an older person who needs support. We have then listed in alphabetical order the area, then the name of the organisation who provides the support and the details of what type of service they offer, how to contact them and the referral route.
