NVQ 4 Advice & Guidance (top up from level 3 - 4 units)

Training and accreditation for IAG practitioners who have completed NVQ 3 Advice and Guidance and whose job role now requires them to deliver more sustained guidance interventions and manage their own caseload.

Subsidised cost: £345.00

Commencing 12 February 2009

Practitioners need to be delivering IAG in their current job role in order to gather evidence for these qualifications.

C & K Training is an accredited OCR Centre with Direct Claims Status. Our experienced assessors offer one-to-one intensive learner support. We expect level 3 candidates to complete within 6-9 months and level 4 candidates within 9-12 months.

Achievement of these qualifications can help towards Matrix accreditation and meets many quality standards and funding requirements.
